The clubhouse was practically descried yesterday, and none of the members of the committee was there. No information as to the date of the meeting could be elicited. An office of the club who is prestly close to the members of the committee said, although not speaking officially, that the result of the investigation was a complete exponeration of Mr. Iselin and Ms associates, and further stated that at no time did the members of the club believe that any whete result could be reached.

Mr. Askwith, who represented the Irish lord in the investigation, is still at the Hotel Brunswick, where he will probably remain until after the committee's report has been placed before the club.

Western Owners and Breeders Threaten to Run an Opposition Meeting.

Cincinnati. Ohio, Jan. 3.—The meeting of the O. and B. turfmen to-day was well attended. The Western tracks had fewer representatives, but what they said counted to O. and B. wanted larger purses, bigger stake races and decreased expenses. Colonel Simonton, for the Western Association, showed that their losses were more than burdensome, and the purses and stakes must go down rather than up.

eputation. The sult has attracted widespread attention, owing to the prominence of the two men in turf circles. On June 30, 1894, at the Coney Island Jockey Club, Banquet then owned by M. F. Dwyer, brother of the defendant, fouled Ramapo and was disquallled. After the race Gideon and Phil Dwyer got into a heated discussion, and Dwyer, it is alleged, said:

"Gideon, you are not a sportsman. You were forced to leave Nashville for turf frauds committed there. President Clark, of the Louisville Jockey Club, wanted you ruled off for crookedness at his track, and warned you off the course."

It was on this alleged utterance that Gideon based his suit for libel, and claimed that it had greatly injured his business, that of a breeder of thoroughbreds, and he asked for $50,000 damages. Senator F. H. Carren, Dwyer's counsel, entered a demurrer, which was overruled by the Special and General Terms of the Supreme Court, and dismissed by the Court of Eppeais.
